ENROLMENT AGREEMENT
(To Be Completed By All Applicants)

Dear Applicant,

We heartily congratulate you on choosing Northern Caribbean University (NCU) to further your educational pursuits. NCU is owned and operated by the West Indies Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists and was established in 1907 to prepare individuals for a life of Christian service. For this reason, the University applies Christian standards to academic department, moral conduct and attire on its campuses.

The following is a list of some of the regulations with which you will be expected to comply. Further, you will be provided with all student responsibilities outlined in the Student Guide which will be given to you on acceptance to the University.

- Punctual and regular attendance at classes
- As for Jewelry, only Engagement and Wedding Tokens/Bands are allowed
- In terms of dress and grooming, a modest, tasteful and professional appearance is required at all times

NB: The University reserves the right to institute rules and regulations and to enforce the same by appropriate actions for infractions, where necessary, inclusive of suspension or expulsion. The University may suspend or expel a student at any time because of blatant violations of its policies, an uncooperative spirit, inappropriate conduct or sub-standard scholarship.

I understand that withholding information requested in this application or giving false information may make me ineligible for admission to, or continuation at Northern Caribbean University. With this in mind, I certify that all of the information supplied is correct and complete and I pledge to co-operate and abide by the ideals, standards and regulations set forth by the University and to respect the principles and traditions it upholds.
